

Give It Up Or Let Me Go (Remastered Version)

Bonnie Raitt

Well I told you, pretty baby
Such a long time ago
If I found you with another
Well, I'd walk right out your door
Oh, you might call me crazy
There's one thing, you should know Well, if you want me to love you
Got to give it up or let me go I know it's useless to be jealous
I couldn't tie you if I tried
When I'm thinkin', you're messin'
Around my back
It brings a pain I just can't hide
Oh baby, I've been true to you And if I can make that sacrifice
Honey, you can do it too Well, you come home drunk and nasty
You won't tell me where you've been
Just when things are nice and sweet
Your goin' back out again
Why do you want to mess up a good thing?
I'm gonna find me another man
One that wants to give me everything Well I told you, pretty baby
Such a long time ago
If I found you with another
Well, I'd walk right out your door
You might call me crazy
One thing hey, you should know Oh honey, if you want me to love you
Got to give it up or let me go
