

Some Kind of Hate

Blood for Blood

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

White Trash Hardcore Rock n' Roll Fuck you! Hua, come on!
Here we go! There's no way out. I got some kind of hate,
I got some kind of hate, some hate
I got some kind of hate and I hate the whole human race. I got some kind of hate,
I got some kind of hate, some hate
I got some kind of hate and I hate the mother fucking human race. So let's go... Oh yeah!
Y'know I got some bad ideas burning deep in my black heart.
Well, evil is as evil's gonna do now
Y'know I try to do my part. ... HA HA!
And I'm a time bomb tickin'... BOOM!
I been tickin' to the sounds of the rock and roll... OH NO!
I think I'm gonna explode... OH NO!
I THINK I'M GONNA EXPLODE! You call me anti-social, well you're fucking right!
'Cause I hate this goddamned world and everything inside and every one inside.
You call me anti-social, well you're fucking right!
'Cause I hate this mother fucking world and every mother fucker in sight! I got some kind of hate for the human race.
I never found a place in the human race...
Maybe it's too late for the human race.
I never found a place in the human race... Sometimes I wish I could just turn my back and run.
Just turn my back and run away.
Sometimes I feel like I just gotta gotta get a gun and reach the top of the world my own way...
