Foreign Time

Glass Towers

I took a ride down where nobody grins to remind myself it's sink or swim its all over the town suicideA lovers mind is for nobody's sin she'll take off her clothes and jump right in being the dog that I am I won't hideBut I'm too young too late too young to find what I've been looking for
in this gutter town in this silly townBut I'm too young too late too young
to find what I've been looking for
in this gutter town
in this silly townI still hold onto those things that I read in a book that told me I can't win oh what a mess that I'm in I'm aliveUniversity has painted a life that has come before me other guys, people that were what I am in a foreign timeBut I'm too young too late too young to find what I've been looking for
in this gutter town
in this silly townBut I'm too young too late too young
to find what I've been looking for
in this gutter town
in this silly townI took a ride down where nobody grins
to remind myself it's sink or swim
its all over the town
suicide

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/