Amnesia

Ian Carey

Staring at me, scratching your head with that bewildered look on your face
You dont quite seem to recollect, its as if there isn't a trace.
Of all the reasons that I've got to leave,
All the ways you've done me wrong.
Maybe I can jog your memory
By the time Im done with this song.
Chorus:
Youre a liar, a cheat, unfaithful dog
You threw away all our love and trust (love and trust)
Its so hard to see just who you are
Youve been stricken with amnesia
Amnesia
I think you got me all wrong, girl
Amnesia
I, I think you got me all wrong
Amnesia
I think you got me all wrong, girl
Amnesia
I think you got me all wrong
I know you'd rather forget all of the pain you caused me inside
You need a good reality check, thats why Im walking out of your life!
So all the images start flashing back
And the picture is restored
Let me resurrect your sordid past
Till there ain't no doubt anymore!
Chorus:
Youre a liar, a cheat, unfaithful dog
You threw away all our love and trust (love and trust)
Its so hard to see just who you are
Youve been stricken with amnesia!
Amnesia
I think you got me all wrong, girl
I think that I dont!
I think, I think you got me all wrong
Youre playin' yourself!
I wouldnt do you like that
Yes, you would!
I think you got me all wrong, girl
I think you got me all wrong, girl

I think that I don't!
I think, I think you got me all wrong
You're playin' yourself!
I wouldn't do you like that
Yes, you would!
I think you got me all wrong, girl
Amnesia!
