All Luck Ran Out

Sondre Lerche

They were seen high-jacking someone's car
They drove far away and it's in the news
The papers too, it's all aroundSome of us already knew the truth
They call it salvation for the street
I'll make sure you come cleanIt never happened before when we were playing
It's serious now, 'cause someone's luck runs out tonight
It's a terrible fright, yeahNa, na, naThey came here to steal the things they like
Computer equipment, mechanical stuff
'Cause we've had enough, we give thatt awayBut someone let the scene away too soon
It is tremendous in a way
We've never seen in our streetIt never happened before when we were playing
Now TV shows have talken all their say
And now your luck runs out tonightIt's this simple, you believe
Someone gives and you receive
But somewhere along the way
Our luck ran out againNa, na, naNow they live in never never-land
They're claiming they're tourists
They light up the crowd and don't talk so loud anymoreBut I'm sure we will see their brothers soon
Already racing to be first
They find it hard to achieveIt never happened before we have been playing
Let's do it again, forget what I've been saying now
Your luck runs out tonight, tonightNa, na, naAll luck ran out tonight
All luck ran out tonight
All luck ran out tonight
All luck ran out tonightNa, na, na
