The 13 Frightened Souls

Deceased

The shocking truth the 13 souls the time ticks peacefully. A horrid tale a frightful day now locked in history. As one by one the chosen gone some final place they'll stay. Forever lost as all stands still and weirdness claims it's prey.
Into the air they disappear the 13 souls erased. No horrid thought was left unthought no boundaries were untraced. The years have passed but nothing's changed an unsolved piece of time.
The 13 frightened souls!!
Unmasking those marked to go was there a reason why? Eerie choices random death is no one's quest replied? Just what controls the course of all, lead us to the one? Is there a being a martyr lord to change all destiny? Can we believe in all truth that there's no other life? Beyond our time beyond our world beyond our seeing eyes.
13, calling
A texture made of demise, uncertainty of the soul, the horrible task of fate. 13 the number of fear, refusal to believe the beyond, existence of darkness unknown.....
13!!! 13!!! 13!!! 13!!!
