Upside Down

The Muffs

And I said hello
I ran into you the other day
And you looked awayAnother halo
The only thing you're gonna need
If you wanna beAnother face and you're inviting
But you're frightening
And it's only make believe
When you're upside downAnother playboy
You wanted to think you're really something
But you're really nothingEver dayglo
You're probably all in disarray
Nothing much to sayA candy face and paint by numbers
Even dumber
And it's only make believe
When you're upside downCandy's wanting you and now I can't take it
Candy's wanting to now please don't fake itA candy face . . .
