On Every Street

Dire Straits

There's gotta be a record of you some place You gotta be on somebodys books The lowdown, a picture of your face Your injured looksThe sacred and profane The pleasure and the pain Somewhere your fingerprints remain concreteAnd it's your face, I'm looking for On every streetA ladykiller, regulation tattoo Silver spurs on his heels Says, what can I tell you as I'm standing next to you She threw herself under my wheelsOh, it's a dangerous road And a hazardous load And the fireworks over liberty explode in the heatAnd it's your face, I'm looking for On every streetA three-chord symphony crashes into space

The moon is hanging upside down

I don't know why it is I'm still on the case It's a ravenous townAnd you still refuse to be traced Seems to me such a waste

And every victory has a taste that's bittersweetAnd it's your face, I'm looking for On every streetAnd it's your face, I'm looking for On every street
