Better Than You

Cyclefly

Back door slams got it by this time
Been sitting in the corner
Staring at her monkey shrine
When hope has lost and the fire diesJust put it in your pocket
And think of better times
Just like a dreamBe the last one
This timeI've been standing cold by the firelight
Feeling old trying to chase the passing time
Now hope's not lost 'cause the fire criesJust put me in your pocket
And think of better times
Just like a dreamHolding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh yeah, I'm the last oneHolding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh, this timeBetter than you, better than you, better
Much better than you
Better than you, better
Much better than youOh, this time
Holding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh yeah, I'm the last oneHolding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh yeah, I'm the last oneHolding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh yeah, I'm the last oneHolding back relentlessly
Extract ourselves to never be
(Be the last one)Folding pages endlessly
Forever broken
Oh, this time
