

Ocean

Cerys Matthews

Two ships passing in the night
Drop an anchor for a while
We'll share some company
We're the same you and me
It's in the air that we breathe
And there's no shame Wide is the ocean
Sweet Gravity And beneath the evening sun
If there's work to be done
I shall not falter
Swell shell ease
Swell she'll rise
I'll take my seat there by your side
You won me over Wide is the ocean, I long to follow,
Sweet Gravity For every reason a purpose begins
A time and a place for everything
The sun will not burn you
The moon will not roam Wide is the Ocean, i long to follow,
Sweet Gravity
