

Mystery Man

Sebadoh

Earnest little lover, little mystery man
Nothing thrills you like denial
There's nothing wrong with the need to please
And children know no shame Baby, on your bended knees
And she'd love to play your game
She's a curious girl, easily swayed by your force of will Empty to be filled with the hunger for more What if time denies you
The key to your fulfillment fails?
Around the world again on a boat
That sinks as it sails Stand shoulders above her
Pick her up when you love her
Rub it right when you use her
Need it so bad you abuse her But don't leave her alone
Cause soon she'll be tasting
The sweet unknown
If it feeds her candy, she'll follow it home Make your claim, she's legally yours
When she shares your name
But don't lose control cause you'll scare her away
Go on beg her to stay
