Fireside

The saddest smile
Can fill my heart with lies
To laugh or cry
That's what it's all about
I just can't figure outI said, goodnight
And hung up the phone
Stayed up all night
'Cause I knew, you weren't aloneAnd all those memories
Will be my death
The smell of your presence
Has stained my bedI used their love
To compensate
The lack of you
But it's too lateYour pretty eyes
I'd give my life
Good reason
Not to ask me outSo drink up
And get me drunk
And let it
Drag me all aroundThe saddest smile
Can fill my heart with lies
To laugh or cry
That's what it's all about
I just can't figure outThe saddest smile
Can fill my heart with lies
To laugh or cry
That's what it's all about
I just can't figure out
