Circus Maximus

Life passed on today
She remembered all the times they had
It will never come back again
I can't wait for tomorrow
I can not bring back yesterday
Now I see the light before me
It just brings me on my way
Even in the shadows remain
Baby, I know that you and I will meet again somedayI know there's something you wanna say
You close the door at night
You make me go awayI try to make you remember... belief is all you need
And show you I'll be around forever
I try to make you remember me
I try to open your mindEven if the stars remain
Baby, I know that you and I will meet again
