

Want It All

P.O.D.

My head is in the clouds
I'm just another face, in the crowd
So here I go again, chasing the wind

My heart is split in two, one side at ease the other is so confused
Why? Why do I want it all?
Why? Why do I want it all?
My eyes are on the price, but my nature hears the lies

I came into this with nothing
Empty handed I'll leave this

Virtue with pleasure is a such immense increase
Why? Why do I want it all?
Why? Why do I want it all?
