

Messages from Sophia (Instrumental)

Lisa Germano

You can carry me home now
You can carry me home
I'm drunk and you're tired
We haven't talked for a while You can carry a lie
Till it makes you fall down
You can't help me be quiet
I couldn't touch you right now You couldn't care if I died
But I haven't finished quite yet
Couldn't you give me a moment?
Let me catch my breath Lies, liar
Lies, liar
Lies, liar You can carry me home now
You can carry me home
I'm drunk and it's Christmas
We haven't talked for a while You can carry me home now
Would you just carry me home?
