You Bet I Stare

Bane's World

She walks past here every day now, you bet I stare (you bet I stare)
She looks at me then she looks away, she doesn't care (she doesn't care)

But now I, will let her go
Because she, will never know
But now I, will let her go
Because she, will never know

She walks past here every day now, you bet I stare (you bet I stare)
She looks at me then she looks away, she doesn't care (she doesn't care)
