Your Imagination

Daryl Hall & John Oates

I remember when I used to be the jealous kind
I got over it, now you're taking over my old lineYou're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
And baby, your imagination
Imagination's got the best of youI ain't doin' nothing that you could really say was wrong
Just one oversight and no, that didn't last too longListen, you're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
And baby, your imagination
Imagination's got the best of youDon't know what you're looking for What's this thing about, "True blue"?
You know I ain't no danger boy
You're the one I like to touch, touch you, youWhen the mood is right, change the light
And the moment's gone
Better turn around 'cause the light doesn't last too longYou're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
And baby, your imagination
Imagination's got the best of youImagination, your imagination
Imagination, use your imagination
