ohhhhi've tried everything to catch up to ya speed and be the man you need, even change my ways but you always leaving me shaking my head, pushing me to the edge, all you do is complain, i thought it was fate guess i made a mistake accusing me of things i didn't do but ima set you straight cause tonight im coming home late and you can cry all you want but i aint taking it babe and you can beg me to stay bt no way it aint up for debate asking WHO ?What ?Where ?and Why? dont matter if im cheating in your mind what the hell might as well be out there doing what i want to all da time yeahhwatch me as my jeans sag low when i walk out the door imma go be a man, cause you forgot that i wear the pants watch me get these girls on the floor get em asking for more ima go do my dance and she forgot that i rock the pantsindependent work hard for all the above and that i appreciate and now and then got to understand that a man got a breathe , that i need my space from the very last time i kiss ya let there be a gap give me time to miss ya& now ima go out with the fellas dont blow my cell be cool and ima catch you laterwatch me as my jeans sag low when i walk out the door imma go be a man, and you forgot that i wear the pants watch me get these girls on the floor get em asking for more
ima go do my dance and she forgot that i rock the pantswatch me as my jeans sag low when i walk out the door
watch me get these girls on the floor get em asking for more ima go do my dance and she forgot that i rock the pants eh tratado de ser todo para ti y hacerte feliz con todo cumplii pero siempre dices que yo soy infiel que no te doy querer me alejas de ti pense que gane pero creo que falle por eso es que esta noche no me quedo contigo watch me as im gone (watch me as my) jeans sag low when i walk out the door imma go be a man, and she forgot that i wear the pants watch me get these girls on the floor get em asking for more
ima go do my dance and she forgot that i rock the pantswatch me as my jeans sag low when i walk out the door

ima go do my dance cause she forgot that i rock the pants!
