Robert DeLong

[Verse 1]

The drive is long the roads are dark
The answers are inside the car
Memories focused here without revision
The telephones on my ear and indecision
I'll meet you in a northern ocean town
We'll drink our own drinks and we'll settle down
Showed up at your doorstep at half past two
And I saw nothing here but you[Chorus 1]

I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing[Verse 2]

God's broken us up from seeds of superstition
It seems to logically kill them off from our position
We made a symmetry to look into
And I saw nothing there but you[Chorus 2]
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but you
I saw nothing here but
I saw nothing here
I saw nothing here but
I saw no-
