Tomorrow Begins Today

Asian Dub Foundation

I know of a place not so far away
Where no government holds sway
Where no Prime Minister will be given the time of day
Where every person demands to have a say
And they say tomorrow begins today
They say tomorrow begins today
So I know I must find a way
I'm leaving, leaving today
To where no fences may bar my way
Where my imagination
Can be lead a stray
They say tomorrow begins today
