Once Again

Tamar Braxton

Oh, yeah

Oh...oh...oh...oh...It's two nights, seven days

Seven nights for the very first time we met

I felt scared, a first kiss

And I remember it just like it was yesterdayAnd boy, you know that I care for you

But we've got to slow it down'Cause once you fall out of love

You don't wanna rush back into it

And once you feel pain, darlin'

You don't wanna rush back into it once again

Once again, once againHoo...ooh...yeahYou whisper things in my ear

You know that every single woman in the world likes to hear

Those three words, how I wish

That you would be the man that I would spend my life withAnd boy, as much as I care for you

We've got to slow it down, slow it down'Cause once you fall out of love

You don't wanna rush back into it

And once you feel pain, darlin'

You don't wanna rush back into it once again

Once again, once againI've been in love a long time ago

And I've been through pain with this man from my past

And you say that you'll never hurt me, so you say

Could this be a night of fear

Or could this be a fantasy

Please let me know, LordOh, just once

You gotta let me know, know

One time, oh, one time

Gotta let me know

I glad you know

Oh...oh...Once you fall out of love

You don't wanna rush back into it

Once you feel pain

You don't wanna rush back into itOnce you fall out of love

You don't wanna rush back into it

Once you feel pain

You don't wanna rush back into itPlease let me know, LordJust once

I'll sit beside you, sit beside you

Once

'Cause I don't wanna be hurt once again
