Downtown

Alex Lloyd

The same old loose lipped cannon
Speaks for you today
Alone without your talent
Theres not much to sayAnd all these arguments
Are meaningless today
And the reasons why theyve
Vanished in the hazeLet's call it downtown
Let's call it downtown
No reasons do they owe you
Tell me howd you think
It came to beLet's call it downtown
Let's call it downtown
How they come to love you
When you didnt want
To set them freeWe dont forgive to know you
Will you ever see
No reasons do we owe you
Howd it come to beThe leaves have lost their shadows
Deep amongst the grey
I hope that youll be friendly
I heard someone sayLet's call it downtown
Let's call it downtown
No reasons do they owe you
Tell me howd you think
It came to beLet's call it downtown
Let's call it downtown
How they come to love you
When you didnt want
To set them freeIts a stranger
Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger
Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger further awayIts a stranger
Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger
Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger further awayIts a stranger
Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger

Let's call it downtown
Its a stranger further awayAnd it's easy to start
From the back of the line
Where theres no one to tell you
You're still behindIts a stranger further away
And you never miss your friends
Until you cant relate
To the people beside you here todayIts a stranger the further away you get
The further away you get
