

Broken Heart

Ponderosa

Such a shame to feel lonely here
Hope you feel the same this time, my dear
Walk around with a heavy mind
It will take its toll but I feel fine
Grew up too fast to find your feet
Came stumblin' 'round my giving tree
My tree
So I tell you all of my secrets
You just keep on yellin', yellin' all my secrets
You just keep on tellin', tellin' all my secrets
With a broken heart, a broken heart
Such a shame you're such a greedy fish
You're so good or so they say
Sailed ashore with a timber tongue
And breasts of gold, with iron lungs
Fooled around and I lost my head
But braised your soul with fire and lead
And lead
So I tell you all of my secrets
You just keep on yellin', yellin' all my secrets
You just keep on tellin', tellin' all my secrets
With a broken heart, a broken heart
I tell you all of my secrets
I tell you all of my secrets
So darlin', I tell you all of my secrets
I tell you all of my secrets
You just keep on
I tell you all of my secrets
