

Thrill Is Gone (feat. Ryan Tedder)

Baby Bash

I wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
I wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they used to be, baby girl, you're losing me I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
What would you do? Well, now the thrill is long gone, the feelin' is all wrong
Got me feelin' uncomfortable all in my own home
And your ring tone song deleted from my phone
And damn, I use to love that song when it came on And no this ain't 'bout no new company
It's just time for you to do you and me to do me
And you know, and you know that I know, that I know
That we don't belong together no more, no more And even though the memories still make me wanna believe
The facts I gotta face em, it's over, it's history
'Cause you know, we gotta breath and I don't wanna deceive
A lie or get it twisted so, baby, I gotta leave I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Now, baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be, baby girl, you're losing me I wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
What would you do? The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone Well, now I wish there was a way I could turn back the clock
When the lovin' was so hot, good to the last drop
And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time
Wait before the tears and the years on the grind Now you lookin' at me crazy every time you hear my phone ring
Use to get along better back when we was homies
Use to keep it low key, now we fight in public
Argue about anything and every single subject So now I think it's better if we just keep it movin'
I won't trip off you and you won't trip off what I'm doin'
'Cause baby, this ain't crackin' like it use to be
I think you just got a little use to me I wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they used to be, baby girl, you're losing me I wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back

Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
What would you do?The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is goneWell, now I wish there was a way I could turn back the clock
When the lovin' was so hot, good to the last drop
And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time
Wait before the tears and the years on the grindI don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking
And we should be apart, now it's over like a holiday
I don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking
And we should be apart, now it's overI wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Now, baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they used to be, baby girl, you're losing meI wish it could be like it used to, used to, used to
Now, baby, after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
What would you do?The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is goneThe thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
