

Never Enough

Tarja Turunen

Life in bloom, the sweetest season
The warm embrace gave me the meaning
Another time, a cross to carry Cruel facade imaginary
I don't belong There's no going back what we used to be
There's no room for us
no place for me Never enough, never enough
No, never enough, never enough
I gave it all
You still want more A child's game, the search for reason
A coldest day, when I stopped believing
Another war, my endless laughter
A storyline is all they're after
I don't belong
