Second Try

Travis Garland

[Speaking]Baby I'm not perfect
I make mistakes
But I know I can make this right
If you give me a second try, uh
Baby, only God knows what I was thinking
When I did those things to you
Empty is all that I can feel, no emotion
Can feel the space I used to keep for you.
And I just wanna go back, take it all back
You know, I didn't mean it baby
Don't you hold it against me, yeah
And don't just hit it like that,
Yeah I messed up, but I lost my way,
I swear I'll find a road that leads back to your heart.
[Chorus:]If I could just rewind,
I'd call when I said I would
I'd wipe the tears I put there
I'd stay that time I left you hangin'
If I could turn back time to the day that I met you
I'd never let it you get away, on my second try.
Let me try again, try again, try again, try again,
Let me try,
Give me one more chance, one more chance,
Give me a second try.
Sorry doesn't even come close to sayin'
How stupid I feel for what I've done,
And it's crazy I can't even ask your forgiveness
'Cause I can't forgive myself for what I've become.
And I just wanna go back, take it all back
You know, I didn't mean it baby
Please don't hold it against me, yeah
And don't just hit it like that,
Yeah I messed up, but I lost my way,
I swear I'll find a road that leads back to your heart.
[Chorus:]If I could just rewind,
I'd call when I said I would
(I'ma wipe those tears)
I'd wipe the tears I put there

I'd stay that time I left you hangin'
(Left you hangin')
If I could turn back time to the day that I met you
I'd never let it you get away, on my second try.
Let me try again, try again, try again, try again,
Let me try,
(Give me another chance)
Give me one more chance, one more chance,
Give me a second try.
(Let me know what you think)
I just want you to know,
('Till you let it fall back)
If you'll gimme another shot,
(Now i've finally learnt)
I don't even blame you.
(To appreciate what I don't have)
But I can't just go back
(Let me know what you think)
To loving you from a distance
('Till you let it go back)
Here's your door
(Now I've finally learnt)
Tell me what I have to do
(To appreciate what I don't have)
For you to let me back in
And I just wanna go back
[Chorus:]If I could just rewind,
I'd call when I said I would
I'd wipe the tears I put there
(Gotta find the road)
I'd stay that time I left you hangin'
(That leads back to your heart')
If I could turn back time to the day that I met you
I'd never let it you get away, on my second try.
Let me try again, try again, try again, try again,
(And I just wanna go back, take it all back)
Give me one more chance, one more chance,
Let me try again, try again, try again, try again
(Don't just hit it like that, did it like that)
Give me one more chance, one more chance
Let me try again, try again, try again
Give me one more chance, one more chance
And I'll never let you get away.
