Nicole

Red Circle Underground

Call off your dogs when you're done Call off your dogs at the gate
You'll cut your name in my eye, it's only marking your fate
As the tables will turn from the back, will you give up your past
Curse the sun, and the moon and the stars, and all that won't last.

Nicole?

You love your favorite disguise, you love your favorite mistake
Without your help I might fall, am I your hopeful disgrace?
Curse the sun and the moon, and the stars, and all that won't last

Nicole?
I'm calling out your name
Nicole...
