

Lonely Road Of Faith

Kidrock ft. Hank Williams Jr.

Up and down that
Lonely road of faith
I have been there
Unprepared for the storms
And the tides that rise
I've realized one thing
How much I love you
And it hurts to see, to see you cryin?
I believe we can make it through
The winds of change
God is great indeed
If you believe, in the everlife
Yeah, we gotta
Make some sense of the piece
That's not defined
And if you just hold on
I won't let you fall
We can make it through
The storms and the winds of change
No, no
Though I walk through
The valley of darkness
I am not afraid
'Cause I know, I'm not alone
And if the wind blows east
Would you follow me?
And if the wind blows north
Would you stay your course?
And if the wind blows west
Would you second guess?
And if it blows to the south
Would you count me out?
And if the sun don't shine
Would you still be mine?
And if the sky turns gray
Would you walk away?
Would you say I do
If I say I'll be
And walk this road through life with me?

You know, I love you
On this lonely road of faith
On this lonely road of faith
