

E's Tune

Eels

I have two eye gut I cannot see
I have a heart but I can not feel anything
Don't give up now I'm almost there I got a mouth but is doesn't say
The things I want it to say today anyway
Don't give up now I'm almost there Life's just an ugly mess
The angry soul's in such distress
Still there is a time when moments can be sweet
And it feels like someone is smiling down on me
Sometimes it feel like I'm all alone
Most of the time actually I am alone
That's alright
Don't give up now I'm almost there Oh if I had a million bucks it wouldn't matter
'cause my soul's always climbing a ladder
Oh I know
Don't give up now I'm almost there
Life's just an ugly mess
The angry soul's in such distress
Still there is a time when moments can be sweet
And it feels like some one is smiling down on me Alright
