It's Late, I'm Up

Halifax

Quarter past 2
Still heading in
Still hasnt effected me in the least7 'o clock I punch my time card
7 'o clock I punch my time cardAnother days time slowly goes by7 'o clock I punch my time card
7 'o clock I punch my time cardIts late and Im up
I got this feeling
In my head
Somethings sleeping
In my bedSo go away and just leave
I will be better all alone
I will be better all aloneToday I woke up
And everyday
Is supposed to be a new day
But everthing looks the same
Everything looks the sameCould it be
That I am not alright
Could it be
I have some screws loose in my mindIts late and Im up
I got this feeling
In my head
Somethings sleeping
In my bedSo go away and just leave
I will be better all alone
I will be better all aloneIts late and Im up
I got this feeling
In my head
(In my head)
Somethings sleeping
In my bedIts late and Im up
I got this feeling
Inside my head
Somethings sleeping
In my bedSo go away and just leave
I will be better all alone
I will be better all alone
