Feel Alright

Youngblood

Try to find footing when you're in the air
Sleep with the ghost and you're running scared
Of who? Of who?

Save up your money and your bad dreams
Take them on a holiday on a one way trip
For two, with a view

Scraping off the war paint
Fingers in the creases
Kicking up the ashes
Dusting off the pheonix
I'm assumed with you

Chalk it up to fashion
Blushing in the bleachers
Mr. Satisfaction
Hold me like you mean it
And for the rest it's true

Start at the bottom and you write your own
Scaling up the walls of your penthouse home
To choose, your views

Sleep with the strangers,
So you find one, that you can rely on
Don't you wanna breathe in all
The good? For good?

Don't need a reason, hard time for feeling
Top side, overnight, feels hot, burning bright
Don't need a reason, hard time for feeling
Lip spark, kiss the sky, do you feel alright?

Do you feel alright?
Do you feel alright?

Scraping off the war paint
Fingers in the creases

Kicking up the ashes
Dusting off the pheonix
I'm assumed with you

Chalk it up to fashion
Blushing in the bleachers
Mr. Satisfaction
Hold me like you mean it
And fuck the rest it's true

Don't need a reason, hard time for feeling
Top side, overnight, feels hot, burning bright
Don't need a reason, hard time for feeling
Lip spark, kiss the sky, do you feel alright?

Ahhh
Do you feel alright?
Ah ah ah ah
Do you feel alright?
Ahhh
Do you feel alright?
Ah ah ah ah
Do you feel alright?
Ahhh
Do you feel alright?
Ah ah ah ah
Do you feel alright?
Ahhh
Do you feel alright?
Ah ah ah ah
Do you feel alright?
