Words

The Kite String Tangle

Can't find the words
I'm falling apart
Can't find a leg to stand on
You tug at my threads
You pull me apart
You wear me down
Now I'm brokenYou didn't have to say no
I didn't have to see you goThere's a lump in my throat
I can't get it down
You keep me afloat
But I'm sinking
Look at the time
When nobody's watching
But it's flying by
And I'm fallingYou didn't have to say no
I didn't have to see you goYou didn't have to say no
I didn't have to see you go
