You Mean That Much

Tank

Yeah, no, right now, no, no, no, noI give up my lifestyle, I don't care what they think
I cry to get you back and I'll fight until I win
Don't care how much it hurts, don't matter what you do
I mean no matter what'Cause you mean that much to me
'Cause you mean that much to me
'Cause you mean that much to meDon't want to see you cry, I swear to tell the truth
My pride is out the door, I'll be that man no more
How hard to gain your trust? Can't do this without you
You leave me, girl, I die'Cause you mean that much to me
'Cause you mean that much to me
'Cause you mean that much to me
Girl, girl, you mean that much to me
'Cause you mean that much to meIf you catch the blame I take it for Hard time, I go it on
And I swear it was all my fault
'Cause you mean that much to meI'll stand on the front line
Take a bullet that's not mine
I'll leave it lay down by now
'Cause you mean that much to me, yeahYou mean that much to me
You mean it, you really mean it girl
You mean so much
Oh no, I can't take another day without you, girl(You mean so much to me)
Baby, I, I would cry for you
(You mean so much to me)
Oh, yeah
You mean that much to me
Mean it, yeah, mean it, yeahYou mean it , girl, you mean it, girl
(You mean that much to me)
You mean it , girl, you mean it, girl
(You mean that much to me)
You mean it , girl, you mean it, girl
