

A Broken Whisper

Wolfsheim

Silence slowly comes to me
Embraces me so tight to keep me cold
The thought that's drifting through my mind
Struggles to be free and wails aloneEmbraces me so tight
Struggles to be free
We turn to stone
We don't find homeCan you hear this broken whisper?
Can you hear it how it calls?
We turn to stone
We don't find home(Embraces me so tight)
Can you hear this broken whisper?
(Struggles to be free)
Can you hear it how it calls?
We turn to stone
We don't find home
