

This Is Dungeon Music

I Am The Avalanche

Gettin' real suspicious of the one I love
It's like she's baring down and she's way too close to my back
Call an army marching towards me
Make it fast like a bullet
I want to feel it burn through me
I feel the ground start to shake
And every breath that we take
Meant so much to me and less to you
Everyone everywhere has their shit and I don't care
I'm merely suggesting to try to think about the mess that you're making
Pick up the garbage
Cause most of it's yours
Bring the bag outside
Come in before it pours
I feel the ground start to shake
And every breath that we take
Meant so much to me and less to you
It's like you know things that I'll never know
Well I know I know I know I know I know
I know
Sweetie it's hard for me to stay mad sweetie it's hard for me to stay so mad
Your second chances are just piling up alright
I feel the ground start to shake
And every breath that we take
Meant so much to me and less to you
It's like you know things that I'll never know
Well I know I know I know I know I know
