Thin Air

Pearl Jam

Theres a light, when my babys in my arms.
Theres a light, when the window shades are drawn.
Hesitate when I feel I may do harm to her.
Wash it off cause this feeling we can share.
And I know shes reached my heart in thin air.Byzantine is reflected in our pond.
Theres a cloud, but the water remains calm.
Reaching in the suns fingers clutch the dawn to pass.
Even out, its a precious thing to bear.
And I know shes reached my heart in thin air.
Yes I know shes reached my heart in thin air.Its not in my past to presume.
Love can keep on moving in both directions.
How to be happy and true is quest were taking on together.Take it on, on, on, on, on.
Take it on, on, on, on, on.Theres a light when my babys in my arms.
And I know shes reached my heart in thin air.
And I know shes reached my heart in thin air.
And I know shes reached my heart in thin air.
Yes I know shes reached my heart.
