

Converted

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Shoot me with the real thing
Shoot me, me moth, me motha'
Now's the time for you
To get right and repent I've been converted
Sit right there and get educated
Sit right there
I've been converted Peace in the valley
I've been converted
Peace in the valley
Sit right there and get educated
Sit right there You gotta ask yourself this question
Can a man who has fought in the jungles
With I.V. Lenin against the running bell
Kept the least of pigs? Sleepin' and huntin' so lonely
That the rats would search back
Be my redeemer, an' gotta say well maybe Yes, and maybe no, but I know
That I gotta go somewhere
And that somewhere might
As well be church Now's the time for you to get right and repent
I've been converted Forty days you been tried and tempted
Forty nights you been out in the cold
Every phone line conversation's intercepted
You can't reconnect 'cause the frequency is closed So many winds, you been out of direction
So many signs, you ain't got nowhere to go, yeah
Cadillac has got its headlights disconnected
You're rollin' your wheels down the wrong side of the road Can you see them now?
Can you see them now?
Can you see the sisters swinging, yeah? Can you hear them now?
Can you hear them now?
Now's the time for you to get right and repent
Can you hear the brothers singing, yeah? Let's go back to church
Let's go back to church

So damn long since we sung this song
Let's go back to churchLet's go back to church
Let's go back to church
Any day now, anyway, anyhow
Let's go back to churchI've been converted'Cause see
You drink the wine but it, it tastes like water
And ya broke the bread but it, it turned into stone
The Sacrament, it lays scattered on the pavement
And the covenants you kept they'd all
Been stolen under the soulYou can see them now
Yeah, you can see them now
You can see the sisters swinging, yeahI know it now
Yeah, you can hear them now
Yeah, you can hear them now
Hear the brothers singing, yeahLet's go back to church
Let's go back to church
Its been so damn long since we sung this songLet's go back to church
Let's go back to church, yeah
Let's go back to church
Any day now, anyway, anyhowLet's go back to church
Right backI've been converted
I've been conRight backI've been converted
I've beenThe Lord knows I
The Lord knows I
The Lord knows I
I've been converted long timeThe Lord knows I
Take your time
The Lord knows I
Back to you, oh Lord
The Lord knows I, ohh
I've been convertedYeah 'cause I'm talkin'
With the street angels on this roadI ain't goin' away, no way
Church is where I'm goin' to stay every time
I come to church I feel allow, alive, resuscitated
Ain't no fear, I chase all them demons
Away right here in church, yes sirLet's go back to church
Let's go back to church
I'm gonna lift up my soul to the sunshine
Now, any howLet's go back to church
Let's go back to church
Let's go back to church
Yeah, the lights in heaven
Goin' to shine on this
People get readyThere's a train a comin'
Let's go back to church

Let's go back to church
Now, any how, say it now
Let's go back to church
