

Poison

Motörhead

People tell me you didn't know better
Give me sermons 'bout the things I do
Come to love 'em, even wrote letters
You know I even asked it of you, I said I've been doing poison
I guess I poisoned my life
I've been doing poison
It's better than marrying your wife On the road, the pace is getting frantic
Specially when your poisoned out your mind
A flight of stairs is like swimming the Atlantic
When you're poisoned, deaf, dumb and blind I take my poison
I guess I poisoned my life
Been doing poison
I wish I'd poisoned my wife My father, he used to be a preacher
Never taught me nothing but scorn
If I ever catch him on the street, yeah
I'll make him wish he'd never been born He was poison
I know he has poisoned my life
He was poison
I wish my mother wasn't his wife, no! Poison
