

I Thought I'd See Your Face Again

Sara Evans

I never wanted to but I said goodbye to you
It happens, people change
Sometimes their dreams go separate ways
They say all good things must end
Still someday I thought I'd see your face again I understand, I realize, it was the end of all those nights
With you here in my arms, just the pounding of two hearts
Now that's all gone with the wind
Still someday I thought I'd see your face again I've gotta phone but no way to get a hold of you
I've got a letter but no address that I can send it to Oh, I've gotta phone but no way to get a hold of you
I've got a letter but no address that I can send it to Tonight I'll look out to the stars, can't help but wonder where you are
So much space and time between, all those used to be's
I know life goes on, but then
Still someday I thought I'd see your face again
Oh, I know life goes on, but then
Still someday I thought I'd see your face again
