

That'll Be Me

Kelly Willis & Kevin Welch

chorus

You can't love him
For he's already mine
And I won't let you

Two is too much and I am his one I fell in love with an angel

He will just do anything for me
So girl I understand why you're trying
But he only loves one and that'll be me chorus

You can't love him
For he's already mine
And I won't let you

Guess you didn't see he only needs me You can't pretend that it's not true

I understand that girl so it's ok

I listened to your story now go, go, go

Cause we would like to have some time of our own chorus

You can't love him
For he's already mine
And I won't let you

You've had your chance and now it is mine chorus

You can't love him
For he's already mine
And I won't let you

He'll just have one and that'll be me
