

Nowhere to Go

Henrik Freischlader Band

Well, I'm done with this fooling, I won't answer no call
I am tired, broken, and hungry, and I think I'm gonna fall I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone

Where do I go? i just don't know! will I make it on my own?
I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone
Nowhere to go, nobody knows what is wrong No more expectations, no more let-downs to take
No more lies and no more sorrows, no more content to fake
I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone
Where do I go? i just don't know! will I make it on my own?
I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone
Nowhere to go, nobody knows what is wrong

- bridge -

Yes, I've tried to be a good man and I gave all that I had
It didn't seem to be enough it really made me feel handcuffed and my soul is just so sad...

- solo -

I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone
Where do I go? i just don't know! will I make it on my own?
I am alone, wanna go home, and my heart feels like a stone
Nowhere to go, nobody knows what is wrong, wrong, wrong...
