Cycles

Brainstorm

Who do you wanna believe
Where do you want me to hide
You just can't escape your past
A vision from your mindWhat do you think and what do you see
What do you read in their eyes
The promise cast, the hopeful lured
Stabbing by the pointed wordsMake me, help me
Try to understand
Hate me just because
Of who I amOver the walls
Where all your memories are lost forever
Hiding in your soul
Into the madness of the unknown now or never
Cycles forevermoreWhy do you tell what you feel
Why do trust in the lies
High paid thief, another vote
Sharpened lies cut your throatLack of faith and hell awaits
Would be my destiny
What you feel is right and sane
Instinct stifled be ashamedLeave me, believe me
Emotions are running low
Break me my hate
That always growsOver the walls
Where all your memories are lost forever
Hiding in your soul
Into the madness of the unknown now or never
Cycles forevermore, yeahSave me, sacrifice me
Soon my reign will end
Heal me, control me
As my tears descendOver the walls
Where all your memories are lost forever
Hiding in your soul
Into the madness of the unknown now or never
Cycles forevermore, cycles forevermoreOver the walls
Where all your memories are lost forever
I've seen it all before
Into the madness of the unknown now or never
Cycles forevermore
