Love

Marsha Ambrosius

Ooh, love
Well alright, well alright, well alright
YeahI wake up every morning
I grab a cup of coffee and I
I read the morning paper
There's nothing 'bout you being on my mind
I could be going crazy
'Cause nothing that I do will subside
What I feel, what I feel inside
I'm missing you babyI hop up in the shower
The water running with my falling tears
Every second every hour
It's only been a week but it feels like years
I know I might be crazy
Because I'm getting weak so weak for you my dear
Boy I need you hereWhen love knocks at your door
Don't turn it away
Just let it inside
Invite it to stay
Just let it be
Don't you be afraid
If this is how you feel
This must be love
This must be loveI say hello to my neighbour across the hall
Hoping I don't have to feel so alone at all
I put a smile where I'm frowning now
I shouldn't let it bring me down
I think of the moments that I tried
To walk away and leave your side
I'm waiting on you again
Love I need you here
I'm missing you babyWhen love knocks at your door
Don't turn it away
Just let it inside
Invite it to stay
Just let it be
Don't you be afraid
If this is how you feelAnd I tried and I tried and I tried to deny the emotions
But you know that it's love when you can't get enough

And it's all you've been dreaming of (Still dream about loving you)
Well alright well alright well alrightWhen love knocks at your door
Don't turn it away
Just let it inside
Invite it to stay
Just let it be
This must be love (must be love)When love knocks at your door
Just let it inside
Just let it be
This must be love (must be love)
