

There's Money in New Wave

A.C. Newman

Someday things will be familiar streets
All the half built houses gone to home.
You will know what no one teaches you
Now well see that kids need learning
Hoping that I have some good advice.
Something you could win with something true,
Not exactly sure just what I'd do.
You think it's rock and roll or something,
I know what to tell you.
That there's many in new way
That I hope you know I love you
We won't have to go home pretty again. Someday things will be familiar streets,
All the other things turning in your head.
Whistling through your life and wave that wing
What currently called science fiction,
I don't want to tell you that there's many new way
And I will deserve the blind stare,
We won't have to go home pretty again,
I don't want to tell you
That there's many in new way
And I will deserve the blind stare,
We won't have to go home pretty again. It's the break out, it's brand new, open wide,
Break out, brand new, open wide.
Break out, brand new, open wide.
