

Highway to Nowhere

Drake Bell

I'm tired of all your excuses
I'm tired of all your lies
Your filthy schemes and abuses
Ooh, I've finally grown wise
Got tired of chasin' it down
Baby it's better that I'm not around
And I'm on the highway to nowhere
Tryin' to get by without you
I don't know why it took me so long to
Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Wind up back at nowhere Wind up back at nowhere with you
It's time for a little payback
It's time for a little respect
You can't just rewind and playback
All of the shit that you wrecked
And I'm on the highway to nowhere
Tryin' to get by without you
I don't know why it took me so long to
Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Wind up back at nowhere
Wind up back at nowhere with you
And I'm on the highway to nowhere
Tryin' to get by without you
I don't know why it took me so long to
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh
Wind up back at nowhere with you, oh yeah
Wind up back at nowhere
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Wind up back at nowhere with you
Back at nowhere, nowhere, wind up back with you [x4]
We are awesome
We are awesome
