

These Things

Chase Coy

Lately I've been getting impatient
I can feel every second
Of every hour, every day Lately I've been thinking too much and
The thought of all the years
I'll have to wait keeps me awake Time is passing, oh, so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting
But aren't we told that all the time? Lately I've been feeling like I am
Stuck with my roots in the ground
But I am ready to move on Lately I've been searching for words to Describe how I'm feeling
But lately all the words I have are wrong Time is passing, oh, so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting
But aren't we told that all the time? Time is passing, oh, so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting
But aren't we told that all the time?
