

It Ends

Faber Drive

so clear silver moon wind moves through my room memories of Saturday (memories of Saturday) slight turn of her head, eyes down when she said, shes goin away, goin away i need to know this am i the fool, am i a victim I'd rather know, you'd rather kiss him, good night, tonight, I'm blinded i try, i tried
is this the way, is this the way, it ends dark echoes inside, cant sleep through the night all the words i heard you say (memories of Saturday)
fade over the yard,
made under the stars,
stuck down in this place,
hands on my face,
i need to know this
I'd rather know,
you'd rather kiss him good night,

tonight, I'm blinded
i try i tried,
get up and chase the vision stand up watch the world go by ahhh ahhh you found, feel the reason black clouds are filling up my sky, ahhh ahhh yeahhhhh
am i the fool, am i the victim I'd rather know,
you'd rather kiss him
am i the fool, am i a victim

tonight I'm blinded,
is the way, is this the way
it ends
i try, i tried,
is this the way it ends
