Love So Deep

Brian Vander Ark

I've been here forever
In an instant replay
And all the familiar faces
And familiar places
Just don't look the same
Yeah, I've been here forever
But I was born yesterday
There's so many ways
To spin this
But if God is my witness
Well he'd probably sayThat it's all because
You gave me something
Just what I need,
A love so deep
And it's all because
You gave me something
And what can I do
With a love so true?I was a creature of habit
Yeah, I was a slave to the drink
My old friends drinking whiskey
And I'm sipping champagne
I don't care what they think
'Cause I got me an angel
And everything is all right
I mean what can I say,
I was born yesterday
And I'll be born again
TonightAnd it's all because
You gave me something
Just what I need,
A love so deep
And it's all because
You gave me something
And what can I do
With a love so true?And who knows what I'd be
If it had been up to me
I'd still be wandering
(Oh, and wondering)
And who knows what I'd find

Living deaf, living blind
Well, that devil's deceased
I will leave him behindAnd it's all because
You gave me something
Just what I need,
And that's a love so deep
And it's all because
You gave me something
And what can I do,
What can I do
With a love so true?It's all because
Just what I need,
And that's a love,
That's a love so deep
And it's all because
You gave me something
And what can I do
With a love so true?
