Whatever You want
Whatever You need
I want to be the one to give
Everything of me
So I'll strive to live
Worthy of Your calling
When I fall I know that
You'll will love me
And I'm free
'Cause after all that's come and gone
I know that You'll be holding on to me
And I believe
That when I'm feeling all alone
That's when I'll be leaning on Your love
I still break down
When I'm paralyzed with fear
But I hold onto the words I've read
And listen for Your voice that calls me near
'Cause all that makes me who I am to be
Is everything in You that I still need
It's a long road left for me to make it home
But I don't go alone
And I'm free
'Cause after all that's come and gone
I know that You'll be holding on to me
And I believe
When I'm feeling all alone
That's when I'll be leaning on Your love
'Cause all that makes me who I am to be
Is everything in You that I still need
And it's a long road left for me to make it home
But I don't go alone
'Cause I'm free
'Cause after all that's come and gone
I know that You'll be holding on to me
And I believe
That when I'm feeling all alone
That's when I'll be leaning on Your love
