

She's a Millionaire

Catatonia

Her treasure chest was sunken
Equally cursed and blessed
In her Versace dress
Too eager to impress A vision filled her soap sud hell
Twin tub on spin
Lets all her daydreams in
And how she wants away from him She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire High street prams
Chariot scene from Ben Hur
Push chair rage
A customized roll bar cage
Will help baby come of age So what's in the pram?
Is it teen death bazooka?
The check out queue
There's no need to argue
About who was in front of who She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaire

She's on it, she's on it
She's on it, she's on it
(She's a millionaire)
She's on it, she's on it
She's a millionaireThe ad begs, "Buy bottled water"
But we know that it tastes of piss
